LB 88, 101

the arrest. Colonel Kohmetscher did not think that that was appropriate. The Patrol people move around. They might not be at or near the situs of the arrest at the time they actually test the device.

PRESIDENT: Senator Beutler, excuse me. (Gavel). There is entirely too much hum going on in the room. I don't know how anyone can understand what is being said. Order please.

SENATOR BEUTLER: Okay, so we have dropped the provision that the testing has to be done at or near the situs at the request of Colonel Kohmetscher and that is the committee amendment. Thank you.

PRESIDENT: The motion is to adopt the committee amendments. Is there further discussion? All those in favor of adopting the amendments vote aye, opposed vote no. Have you all voted? The Clerk will record.

CLERK: 31 ayes, 0 nays, Mr. President, on adoption of the committee amendments.

PRESIDENT: Motion carries. The amendments are adopted. The Chair recognizes Senator Chambers.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Mr. Chairman and members of the Legislature, this is a bill over which, as I have stated in the past, Colonel Kohmetscher and I have labored for several years and we have finally come to a point where both of our minds are in accord, and I would like to say a few words in behalf of this bill and suggest that you advance it to E & R Initial. Thank you. If you have any questions I will answer them.

PRESIDENT: Is there further discussion? Are there questions on the bill? The motion is to advance the bill. All those in favor vote aye, opposed vote no. Have you all voted? The Clerk will record the vote.

CLERK: 32 ayes, 0 nays, Mr. President, on the motion to advance the bill.

PRESIDENT: Motion carries. The bill as amended is advanced. Is Senator Warner in the Chamber? Without objection, we will skip over LB 26 to LB 101. LB 101, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: Mr. President, LB 101 offered by Senator Landis. (Title read). The bill was first read on January 7 of this year, referred to the Revenue Committee. The bill was advanced to General File. Mr. President, there are
